CAUSE

On April 2, 2010, Lisa Brigman was arrested by the Washington State Patrol for the offense of driving while under the influence of intoxicants. Her blood alcohol content level was found to be at .120 and .111. Said levels are above the legal limit to operate a motor vehicle in the State of Washington. Additionally, this is in violation with the special condition imposed by Your Honor that she not consume alcohol to excess.

After reviewing the information with Ms. Brigman, she agreed to the above modifications of conditions of probation, as evidenced by her signature on the attached waiver.

Waiver of Hearing to Modify Conditions of Probation/Supervised Release or Extend Term of Supervision

I have been advised and understand that I am entitled by law to a hearing and assistance of counsel before any unfavorable change may be made in my Conditions of Probation and Supervised Release or my period of supervision being extended. By "assistance of counsel," I understand that I have the right to be represented at the hearing by counsel of my own choosing if I am able to retain counsel. I also understand that I have the right to request the court to appoint counsel to represent me at such a hearing at no cost to myself if I am not able to retain counsel of my own choosing.

I hereby voluntarily waive my statutory right to a hearing and to assistance of counsel. I also agree to following modification of my Conditions of Probation and Supervised Release or to the proposed extension of my term of supervision:

To modify the conditions of supervision as follows:

You are restricted to your residence at all times except for employment, education, religious services, medical, substance abuse, or mental health treatment, attorney visits, court appearances, court-ordered obligations, or other activities as pre-approved by the supervising officer.
- 17 You shall abstain from alcohol and shall submit to testing (including urinalysis and Breathalyzer), as directed by the supervising officer, but no more than six tests per month, in order to confirm continued abstinence from this substance.
- 18 You shall not enter into or remain in any establishment where alcohol is the primary item of sale.
